

Leslie Galbreath, Ed.D. helps Sweet Adelines International choruses and regions address leadership, educational, strategic planning, team development, membership development, and organizational development needs.

She serves as Rocky Mountain Region 8's Education Coordinator, on the Sweet Adelines International Faculty, on the Sweet Adelines International Education Direction Committee, Region 8's faculty, and has served on the Sweet Adelines International Board of Directors, the Leadership Development Program Task Force, the Regional Leaders Committee, the Philanthropy Committee, and chaired an international task force focused on new membership options.

She sings with the Denver-based Skyline chorus where she leads Skyline's strategic planning and organizational development efforts, helps facilitate Skyline's education programs, and serves as the Membership Manager. Leslie is a certified director and former front-line director, section leader, team coordinator, membership coordinator, and marketing coordinator.

Leslie holds a doctorate in Educational Leadership and Policy Analysis and a Master's degree in Educational Leadership.

Her 30-year career in higher education leadership included student enculturation, orientation, academic support, and academic library leadership responsibilities.

Leslie passionately believes that Sweet Adelines International provides endless opportunities for women to discover, rediscover, develop, and hone myriad talents that are injected into the SAI organization and, as importantly, into careers, communities, and families. This passionate belief provides the framework through which she develops and delivers learning opportunities on the risers and in classrooms and living rooms. She believes that all deserve the opportunity to learn and grow through their SAI journey and is privileged to offer skills and resources to facilitate growth.
